Public seminar to think about ageing. Discussions will confront our fears and prejudices around old age, while also pondering the paradoxes of memory, forms of resistance, the desires and unexpected delights that accompany the inevitable heartbreak and losses of any long life. The event coincides with the publication of Lynne Segal’s Out of Time: The Pleasures and Perils of Ageing (Verso, 2013), and will be followed by a film screening of Fear Eats the Soul (dir Rainer Werner Fassbinder, 1974), and reception.

Speakers: Helena Kennedy (chair), Mandy Merck, Laura Mulvey, Simon Watney, Daniel Monk, Matt Cook, Stephen Frosh, Avery Gordon, Lynne Segal.

6.00–9.00 Film, Drinks and celebration for all to experience the joys of life, whatever their age!

Event sponsored by BiGS & Department of Psychosocial Studies.
Programme:

2.00 Introduction: Helena Kennedy

2.10 – 3.30 Mourning, Loss and Survival:
Simon Watney; Avery Gordon; Stephen Frosh

30 minute break

4.00 – 5.30 Spaces of Resistance:
Matt Cook; Daniel Monk; Lynne Segal

30 minute break

6.00 – 7.45 Film Screening of Fear Eats the Soul (dir Rainer Werner Fassbinder, 1974)
Laura Mulvey; Mandy Merck to comment

7.45 – 9.00 Drinks and celebration for all to experience the joys of life, whatever their age!