CONSTITUTION

The constitution of College Boards of Examiners is:

A Chair appointed by Academic Board

A Deputy Chair (drawn from among the existing School members) appointed by Academic Board

2 Members of Academic Board from each School that offers programmes or modules within the College Board’s remit

An intercollegiate examiner appointed by Academic Board

An external examiner appointed by Academic Board

The Academic Registrar will nominate a Secretary to the Board. The Secretary will not be a member of the Board.

The College Board now operates a quoracy whereby at least one representative from each School must attend in addition to either the External Examiner or Intercollegiate Examiner.
