

To all new Graduate Diploma in Economics students

This note is to welcome you to the Economics department, and to tell you about some early tasks.

1. Enrolment: This is a key step. If you have not yet accepted the offer of a place, please do so as soon as possible, so that arrangements can be made for you to enrol. If you received a conditional offer and it has not yet been made unconditional, please make sure the College receives the required documents/ information. Please also inform Justine (gde@bbk.ac.uk), the programme administrator for Graduate Diploma in Economics. Online students should enrol as soon as possible to gain access to online material.
2. All students (except online students) should attend the first session of the Preliminary Mathematics course, even if you have not enrolled. You should already have received notification that this course starts on Wednesday 19 September, 6 pm, in Room B36 of the main College Building (the street address is Malet St, but the main entrance is on Torrington Square). The schedule for this course and the provisional timetable for the whole of the Autumn term can be found on the GDE webpage.
3. The provisional Student Handbook provides a lot of useful information. We recommend you read through the entire Handbook to get a feel for what the programme.
4. If you have queries in the meantime, contact the programme administrator, (gde@bbk.ac.uk)
