

Use of Copyright Software

I agree that my usage of any software issued or otherwise made available to me by Birkbeck College Computing Services via University College London is subject to the following conditions:

1. I will ensure that all the requirements of the agreements or contracts under which this software is held by the University of London (University College London) will be maintained. (Copies of the relevant agreements or contracts may be seen by application to the Information Officer, University College London Central Computing Service).
2. I will ensure the copyright statement is maintained on all copies of this item of software used by me.
3. I will ensure the security and confidentiality of the copy released to me and will not make any further copies from it or knowingly permit others to do so, without informing Birkbeck College Computing Services.
4. I will use this item of software only for purposes defined in the copyright agreement and only on computer systems covered by this agreement.
5. I will not incorporate a modified version of the software in any program written by me without express permission of the Licensor.
6. I will not reverse engineer or decompile the Software Product.
7. I will return all copies of the software at the end of the course/year/period of employment if requested to do so.

In signing this agreement I realise that the University of London (University College London) reserves the right to take legal action against individuals who cause it to be involved in legal proceedings as a result of violation of its licensing agreements.
