

Department of Politics Postgraduate Timetable

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
American Foreign Policy	Global Politics, Governance & Security	The European Union: Integration, Policy & Politics	The Politics of Population Change: Immigration, Ageing & Conflict	Political Theory & Contemporary Politics
Introduction to Quantitative Social Research	Public Policy: Interests, Ideas, Institutions	Middle East Politics	Islamist Movements	Qualitative Social Research
Intermediate Quantitative Social Research	The Political Sociology of the Modern State	Modern British Politics	International Political Economy	The Politics of Global Europe
		War, Politics & Society	Public Management: Theories & Innovations	Nationalism & Ethno-Religious Conflict
		Emerging Powers in World Politics	Theorising Social Research Term 1	Fields of War & Humanitarianism
		Geopolitics, Population & Environment	Masterclass in Social Research Term 2

Note: This timetable may be subject to change should staffing, room booking, or similar issues demand it, although we do not at this stage anticipate any such changes.