

CONCORDANCE OF LETTERS PUBLISHED IN THOMAS BIRCH'S
EDITION OF BOYLE'S WORKS (LONDON, 1744 AND 1772)

Note: since many older writings on Boyle cite the texts of letters to and from Boyle from the edition of Boyle's writings by Thomas Birch which the new editions of his Works and Correspondence supercede, it seems helpful to provide here a concordance of the page references of Birch's texts of letters in the order in which they appear in his edition, with cross-references to their location in the new edition. Longer or shorter quotations by Birch in his Life from letters given in full in the section of his edition devoted to correspondence (and cross-referenced to that) have also been itemized, but references to letters without quotation have not. Other texts quoted at length by Birch from manuscript sources are also here cross-referenced to the new edition(s), to avoid confusion. However, Birch's more miscellaneous quotations from printed sources, including dedications and the like, are not included.
