WHO WE ARE

The Centre for Innovation Management Research (CIMR) is a College-wide research centre. Launched in 2008, its members are drawn from a variety of disciplines, from Management and other social sciences to Computer Science and Biology.

Thematically it encompasses science, innovation and technology systems, intellectual property rights, markets, social capital, entrepreneurship, globalisation and gender in both theory and practice. Analysis and communication of the implications of our research for policy-making (for governments and businesses) are central to the Centre's activities.

CIMR's members belong to four categories. The strength of the Centre comes from their interactions:

Academic staff are the core members of the Centre. They are responsible for the advancement of one or more of our specific research themes. They publish cutting edge articles in the world's leading journals and work closely with stakeholders.

PhD students are an essential component in the Centre's membership. Their affiliation is based on their being either first or second supervised by a core member of the CIMR academic staff. In practice, this means those in the Management Department, however all PhD students who are supervised by CIMR academic staff are invited to attend – e.g. those in Economics, Computer Science and the School of Science.

Visiting Fellows are special assets for the Centre. They are colleagues who work closely with the CIMR. They include entrepreneurs, policy-makers, business people, academics in other UK universities, and academics who work outside the UK, including France, Germany, Ireland, Italy, Sweden and the US.

Alumni are former Masters and PhD students working in the field of innovation and entrepreneurship. They have varied career experiences. Their continued involvement brings current ideas and insights to our programme and several of them give guest lectures on our teaching programmes.

FROM THE DIRECTOR

In 2023 CIMR continued strengthening its relationship with members, colleagues and partners. Over the year we can see six key highlights within our activities and portfolio:

1. CIMR 15th Anniversary:

2023 marked CIMR's 15th Anniversary. To celebrate this with our community, we held an hybrid event and two workshops on October 20th. It was a day of celebration, inspiration, insight, and networking as we looked back on CIMR's journey.

The first workshop focused on discussing the 'Future of Innovation and Entrepreneurship Studies'. Our distinguished panel of speakers included Professor Martin Meyer, University of Vaasa; Prof Tim Vorley, Oxford Brookes Business School; and Professor Muthu De Silva, Birkbeck, University of London. This session was chaired by Brett Gilbert, Kodog School of Business.

The second workshop discussed the intersection of Policy and Practice with speakers including Saverio Romeo, Birkbeck University of London; Jonathan Potter, Head of the Entrepreneurship Policy and Analysis Unit of the OECD Centre for Entrepreneurship, SMEs, Regions and Cities; Jacqueline Winstanley; Dr. Nicola Searle, Goldsmiths, University of London; Dr. Rosa Fernandez, Horizon Europe Analysis, Department for Science, Innovation and Technology; Felipe Martins Gomez VP of Fintech Venture Studies, Barclays Bank.

2. Continued focus on Research and Impact

As well as the BEI School Impact grant to fund our CIMR Media and Engagement Officer 2024, in November 2023 CIMR applied for a Regional Studies Association Networking award with our international partners, Kogod School of Business, Vaasa University and UIC Barcelona. This would fund four events, one in each location. The decision is pending.

In November 2022 CIMR submitted an application to the UCL Bloomsbury and East London doctoral training partnership (DTP) <https://ubel-dtp.ac.uk/groupings-and-pathways/>. CIMR is entered under a pathway entitled Prosperity, innovation, technology and policy, which is led by UCL. CIMR has added a fourth training route, on 'Innovation, Co-creation and entrepreneurship. The announcement that the application was successful came in 2023.

Since the appointment of Gabriella in February 2022, CIMR has achieved an increased amount and range of traffic to social media profiles and website. This includes the number of LinkedIn followers which is now well over 500. New users on the website come from more countries and thence a wider international profile. Audiences have grown for CIMR events and our research and outreach activities because of high-quality promotion activities using various media channels.

3. Vice Chancellor's award:

In March 2023, the entrepreneurship education team of Birkbeck, University of London was awarded the Vice Chancellor's Awards for Excellence in Teaching and Learning. The team comprises Professor Muthu De Silva Prof Helen Lawton Smith and Dr Doyin Olorunfemi, Ms Jenna Davies, who delivers Extra-curricular activities – PIONEER programme, and Dr Pam Yeow, the initiator of Help-to-Grow Programme. <http://www7.bbk.ac.uk/cimr/2023/03/18/entrepreneurship-education-team-wins-vice-chancellors-awards-for-excellence-in-teaching-and-learning/>

An application has been submitted for an award for 2023 based on CIMR's teaching-focus community building practices.

4. PhD Successes:

2023 was an exciting chapter for many of our PhD students as they have successfully completed their doctoral journeys. Join us in extending our heartfelt congratulations to Maryam Ghorbankhani, Maximillian Giehl, Doyin Olorunfemi and Tahani Alharbi for their remarkable accomplishments.

Dr Maryam Ghorbankhani, passed her PhD viva on July 12, 2023. In her doctoral thesis, titled "Exploitation of public sector R&D and the open innovation paradigm: Governance of knowledge transfer within public research organisations (PROs)", Maryam investigates what organisational approaches and managerial practices PROs use in order to transfer their knowledge and R&D outcomes.

<http://www7.bbk.ac.uk/cimr/2023/10/17/congratulations-to-cimr-phd-student-maryam-ghorbankhani/>

Dr Maximillian Giehl, completed his PhD in Management at Birkbeck, University of London, in July 2023. Maximillian's PhD thesis was titled "Overcoming Absorptive Capacity Barriers: The Role of Innovation Intermediaries as Enablers and Beneficiaries of Funded Collaboration Projects in the Digital Sector".

<http://www7.bbk.ac.uk/cimr/2023/10/30/congratulations-to-cimr-phd-student-maximillian-giehl/>

Dr Doyin Olorunfemi, PhD, obtained her PhD degree from Birkbeck, University of London in 2023. Her thesis focused on Entrepreneurial Learning and development of Entrepreneurial Self-efficacy in women who engage in Interconnected Selling.

Dr Tahani Alharbi, PhD, obtained her PhD degree from Birkbeck, University of London in 2023. Her thesis focused on Leader Identity Construction among Saudi Women Academics, specifically exploring the role of readiness in shaping their leadership identities. <http://www7.bbk.ac.uk/cimr/people/alumni/>

5. Personnel changes.

Professors Klaus Nielsen (<http://www7.bbk.ac.uk/cimr/2023/07/10/honouring-prof-klaus-nielsen-a-distinguished-academic-and-researcher/>) and Ron Smith have taken retirement in 2023 but remain as active members of CIMR.

Dr Federica Rossi was appointed to the post of Associate Professor of Economic Policy at the Department of Economics of UniMoRe (University of Modena and Reggio Emilia) in Italy, August 2023. The good news for us is that she remains one of our two deputy directors. <http://www7.bbk.ac.uk/cimr/2023/12/19/a-new-academic-chapter-unfolds-dr-federica-rossi-takes-new-role-at-unimore/>

6. A note of sadness

CIMR was very sad to see the news that Professor Loet Leydesdorff has died. Loet was a wonderful friend to CIMR. Our thoughts are recorded in our blog.

<http://www7.bbk.ac.uk/cimr/2023/03/16/cimr-pays-homage-to-loet-leydesdorff/>

7. The future

Going forward, CIMR has strengthened its Management Team. In 2023 we revised our management team structure to ensure that all our activities are organised strategically and efficiently.

The Management Team is formed by:

- Professor Helen Lawton Smith (Director)
- Dr Marion Frenz (Deputy Director)
- Dr Federica Rossi (Deputy Director)
- Dr Thanos Fragkandreas (Associate Director)
- Ms Gabriella Losito (Media engagement officer)
- Dr Chunjia Han and Ms Jo Magnani (Alumni Co-ordinators)
- Ms Emma Palmer-Foster (PhD Co-ordinator)
- Professor Carlo Milana and Professor Klaus Nielsen (CIMR WP co-editors)
- Ms Jacqueline Winstanley (CIMR Entrepreneur in Residence)

With this new structure, CIMR has a strong coordination team to take us forward, meet the challenges of the new year and expand our research and practice portfolio. Thanos as our new Associate Director, brings fresh impetus to our already outstanding research portfolio. Jacqueline Winstanley as CIMR entrepreneur in residence will be engaging with our varied membership bringing further practice-based activities to our research and teaching. These include developing further research and impact collaborations and engaging with our alumni and PhD students. CIMR's commitment to research-led teaching and learning and to equality, diversity and inclusion are fundamental to our ethos.

My thanks to the whole CIMR team for the wonderful work and team spirit.

I commend our annual report to our members and friends which celebrates our achievements in the past year.

Professor Helen Lawton Smith, Director of CIMR January 14 2024

RESEARCH HIGHLIGHTS AND PROJECTS

CIMR people undertake world class research. Here are some examples.

1. CIMR Director Helen Lawton Smith and her Henry Etzkowitz explored the international money trails of university venture capital (UVC). The paper provides a unique international perspective on the money trails of UVC, resulting from collaborative efforts between scholars and practitioners in the US, UK, and Finland. The reference for the paper is Etzkowitz et al. (2023), published in Venture Capital. 2. CIMR Deputy Director Federica Rossi and Chiara Marzocchi, Fumi Kitagawa, Federica Rossi, Elvira Uyarra, have released a special issue in Studies in Higher Education aiming to overcome the prevailing narrow notion of KE and addressing broader questions related to engagement and incentives towards KE. The special issue comprises seven papers that seek to broaden our understanding of KE in a broader context. [A special issue. CIMR PHD STUDENT AND ALUMNI NEWS

Currently there are some twenty PhD students and alumni within the Department of Management involved with CIMR. Their details are listed on the CIMR website.

PhD students and alumni are invited to attend CIMR workshops, to submit working papers, to help organise events – sometimes as paid research assistants to CIMR, and to be speakers in CIMR events. These provide the main opportunities for networking and social activities.

Maximillian Giehl has completed PhD on ‘Overcoming Absorptive Capacity Barriers: The Role of Innovation Intermediaries as Enablers and Beneficiaries of Funded Collaboration Projects’. Supervised by Federica Rossi and Muthu de Silva. Examiners: Prof. Omar Al-Tabbaa (University of Leeds) and Dr Grace Bo Peng (Birkbeck).

Tahani Ibrahim Alharbi has completed PhD on ‘Leader Identity Construction among Saudi Women Academics: How Does Readiness Matter?’. Supervised by Helen Lawton Smith and Rebecca Bednarek (Birkbeck).

Maryam Ghorbankhani has passed her PhD viva with minor corrections on July 12 2023. Supervised by Dr Federica Rossi and Professor Helen Lawton Smith

Doyin Olorunfemi was awarded FHEA accreditation in May 2023. She completed her PhD in October 2023

INNOVATION TEACHING IN CIMR

CIMR staff are engaged in research-led teaching to undergraduates, postgraduates and professionals. Teaching of entrepreneurship is a particular strength. CIMR faculty are experts in entrepreneurship and innovation. Drawing on our expertise, Birkbeck offers a range of entrepreneurship courses to undergraduate (UG) and postgraduate (PG) students, both as curricular and extra-curricular.
